Emotional Friendly Schools
Helen Nicolle
Emotionally Friendly Schools

...a flexible, whole school approach to improving children and young people’s mental health and well-being...

47 primary and 8 secondary Salford schools currently engaged

twitter: @emotionfriendly  www.facebook.com/emotionfriendly
Emotionally Friendly Schools

Why we became an Emotionally Friendly School

twitter: @emotionfriendly  www.facebook.com/emotionfriendly
Emotionally Friendly Schools Accreditation

Bronze, Silver or Gold award encompassing the following areas:

- Leadership and management
- Ethos and environment
- Curriculum, teaching and learning
- Working with parents and carers
- Enabling the student voice
- Identifying need and monitoring impact of interventions
- Staff well-being and development
- Targeted support and appropriate referral twitter: @emotionfriendly www.facebook.com/emotionfriendly

Emotionally Friendly Schools Accreditation

1\textsuperscript{st} school achieved Bronze accreditation

5 more schools in the process and will shortly be accredited

Express an interest in the accreditation - contact us at emotionallyfriendlyschools@salford.gov.uk

Accreditation criteria will shortly be available at:

http://www.partnersinsalford.org/emotionallyfriendlyschools.htm
Emotionally Friendly Schools Conference

Promoting resilience in the face of adversity

Tuesday 22nd May 2018 9.00 a.m. – 3.35 p.m.
The Novotel Hotel, Worsley

Following on from the success of last year’s conference: ‘Happy Staff, Happy School: Promoting Staff Wellbeing’, we would like to invite you to the next Emotionally Friendly School’s Conference. In response to challenging events that have taken place over the past year and to honour the anniversary of the Manchester Arena incident the theme of this year’s conference is how to promote resilience when specific difficulties arise.

Contact: hr&odsupport@salford.gov.uk or elaine.boulger@salford.gov.uk to book your place twitter: @emotionfriendly  facebook www.facebook.com/emotionfriendly